A Treatise on the Law of War.

by Peter Stephen Du Ponceau and cargo. Prize law fully developed between the Seven Years War of 1756–63 and the American Civil War of 1861–65, as did Francis Upton, who wrote the last major American treatise on prize law, his Maritime Warfare and Prize.